

Lakehead Radio Club

Meeting, May 10th, 1939

With twenty members in attendance, the meeting opened with introduction of new members and roll call.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and it was moved by Bill Blennerhassett and seconded by Keith Anderson they be adopted.

Dues were brought to the attention of the members and questionnaires prepared by the president were distributed and completed by all present, giving suggestions for the programme and registration of those in town during the summer.

A discussion on the future of the club followed. Ideas were expressed on advancement by means of code practice, study of new circuits or diagrams, and the formation of an advanced night class. It was decided that if sufficient members were interested, P. J. O'Shea would conduct the course.

A vacancy on the executive, caused by Doug. Dunphy leaving the city permanently was filled by L. Collins, nominated by Ray Greer, seconded by Bert Lambert.

A letter was read from Carl Johnson, GKP with reference to the Hamfest at Grand Marais.

Due to unsettled conditions in radio, it was decided to leave election of officers indefinitely until active again on the air.

It was decided to conduct meetings as usual, once a month, if possible.

Motion of adjournment by L. Collins and seconded by Harold Dow.
